REGISTRATION

Enrollments for our workshops are limited and early registration is recommended. We require full tuition, and a $25 non-refundable registration fee for enrollment. Registration is non-transferable. There will be a $50 fee to switch from one workshop to another, space permitting, within 30 days of the original workshop.

All workshops run from 9-5 each day with a break for lunch. There will be a slideshow the prior evening of each workshop at 5pm. The slideshows are free and open to the public. Stop by Taos Clay to see physical work for sale from each of these artists through out the summer.

Participants are encouraged to work in the studio after or before a workshop begins

SKILL LEVELS

Our workshops are designed for serious ceramic students of all ability levels. If you have any questions about your placement, please contact us.

LAB FEES

Each workshop lab fee includes the costs of clay, glazes, firings, and other materials as specified by the instructor. There are lab fees for all hands-on workshops ranging from $25-$100. Lab fees will be collected at the commencement of the workshop.
